LOCAL INFORMATION FOR RESIDENTS AFFECTED BY THE ROUTE:

ROtherhithe

Special arrangements will be in place for the residents of Rotherhithe peninsular (mile 9 to mile 11) to exit and enter the peninsular while the road closures are in place.

Bacon’s College in Timber Pond Lane will provide a free, secure, overnight parking facility on its premises for use by local residents. The car park will be in operation from 16:00 on Saturday 25 April until 16:00 on Sunday 26 April.

Residents can leave their cars securely parked and can return on foot at any time while the road closures are in place to collect vehicles for exit from the peninsular. From the College, the route out is Timber Pond Road, Poolmans Street, Needleman Street, Surrey Quays Road, Lower Road and Jamaica Road (westbound).

Residents requiring access should use Hawkstone Road, Lower Road, Surrey Quays Road, Needleman Street, Poolmans Street and Timber Pond Road and may leave their cars at Bacon’s College until the roads reopen.

Wapping

Residents of Wapping are enclosed by the route as it passes along The Highway between miles 13 to 14 and again on the opposite carriageway between miles 21 to 22.

Bishop Challoner School will provide a free, secure, overnight parking facility on its premises for use by local residents. The car park will be in operation from 16:00 on Saturday 25 April until 16:00 on Sunday 26 April. Access to the School is via Commercial Road and Steels Lane.

Residents can leave their cars securely parked and can return on foot at any time while the road closures are in place to collect vehicles for exit to the north via Commercial Road, open eastbound and westbound. Residents are advised to use the pedestrian subway at the junction of The Highway and Glamis Road.

In addition, a vehicle crossing point will operate while the road closures are in place at the junction of The Highway and Glamis Road, allowing entry and exit north and south. Residents are advised that while there are runners on both carriageways of The Highway (between approximately 10:00-14:30) it will NOT be possible for vehicles to cross.

ISLE OF DOGS
(Mile 16 to mile 19)
This year there is no longer a dedicated vehicle lane along Westferry Road. Residents on the east and west side of Westferry Road will be able to exit onto Westferry Road and travel south to Manchester Road until 09:45. From 09:45 no vehicle movements will be possible until after 14:00.

Event motorcyclists will be available to guide vehicles along Westferry Road when safe to do so before 09:45 or after 14:00 only. Stewards will be at each junction to assist.

Residents will be unable to return onto the event route until the roads are fully reopened.

GREENWICH FOOT TUNNEL
The Greenwich Foot Tunnel will be open. It will be busy crossing south to north so expect to queue. The Foot Tunnel will be closed north to south between 10:30-12:30. Alternative arrangements are in place on DLR services from Island Gardens.
